HISTORY
With this land for countless generations, employing horticulture techniques that increased habitat diversity and people, everything had a life and spirit, including waters, ticles techniques that increased habitat diversity and
people, everything had a life and spirit, including waters,

ANIMALS
Mountain lions are uncommon, but occasionally

Birding is superb along Alameda Creek, with 178 species identified in the park.

CONSERVATION
The San Francisco Public Utilities Commission (SFPUC) is planning the Calaveras Dam replacement project. Upon project completion, tent camping sites may be reserved by calling 1-888-327-2757, option 2.

GROUP CAMPING: Group camping is unavailable during the Calaveras Dam replacement project. Upon project completion, sites may be reserved by calling 1-888-327-2757, option 2.

High Valley Camp is a hike-in camp located within one mile, off the Visitor Center. Camp Ohlone (open April through October) is a seasonal site located by the park entrance.

HORSE RIDES
Group trail rides, overnight camps, and

HORSE RIDES
Guided trail rides, overnight camps, and

Guided trail rides, overnight camps, and

High Valley Camp is a hike-in camp located within one mile, off the Visitor Center. Camp Ohlone (open April through October) is a seasonal site located by the park entrance.

HORSE RIDES
Group trail rides, overnight camps, and

Group trail rides, overnight camps, and honesteers. In 1895 the Geary’s son, Maurice, built a homestead. In 1860s, with Patrick and Mary Ann Geary among the first homesteader. In 1895 the Geary’s son, Maurice, built the home and barn that would become today’s interniture techniques that increased habitat diversity and

people, everything had a life and spirit, including waters,
ticles techniques that increased habitat diversity and
people, everything had a life and spirit, including waters,

EAST BAY REGIONAL PARK DISTRICT
1751 East 12th Street
Oakland, CA 94607-0381
P. O. Box 5381
Oakland, CA 94605-0381
(510) 633-0460, or info@ebparks.org.

If you would like this information in an alternative language, please contact the EBPRPD Public Affairs Department at (510) 544-2200, fax (510) 635-3478, TDD
(510) 635-0460, or info@ebparks.org.

To Reach Sunol Regional Wilderness:
From Fremont, drive north on I-680 and exit at Calaveras Road (near the town of Sunol.) Turn right at the exit and proceed about four miles to a left turn onto Geary Road, which leads directly into the park. If you find yourself driving right on a narrow winding road you’ve missed the Geary Road entrance. To reach the Old Green Barn take the first left past the park entrance.

From the Walnut Creek-Danville area, drive south on I-680, exit at Calaveras Road/Highway 84 just south of the Sunol exit. Proceed as noted above.

From the Oakland-Berkeley area, drive east on I-880. Take the 1-880 south exit at Calaveras Road/Highway 84 just south of the Sunol exit. Proceed as noted above.

Visitors are responsible for knowing and complying with park rules, available online at www.ebparks.org.

DOGS must be leashed 20 feet from any trail or park entrance, in parking lots, picnic areas, developed areas such as lawns and play fields, and on some trails. They must be under voice control and within sight at all times. Waste must be placed in garbage cans or removed from the park.

Smoking is prohibited, except in overnight campsites.

Drones are prohibited.

State law requires all bicycles under age 18 wear
an approved helmet while riding on trails and roadways.

All bicyclists and equestrians are strongly encouraged
to wear helmets at all times.

The backpack area is
open during the Calaveras Dam replacement project.

Sunol-Ohlone Regional Wilderness
To Reach Sunol Regional Wilderness:
From Fremont, drive north on I-680 and exit at Calaveras Road (near the town of Sunol.) Turn right at the exit and proceed about four miles to a left turn onto Geary Road, which leads directly into the park. If you find yourself driving right on a narrow winding road you’ve missed the Geary Road entrance. To reach the Old Green Barn take the first left past the park entrance.

From the Walnut Creek-Danville area, drive south on I-680, exit at Calaveras Road/Highway 84 just south of the Sunol exit. Proceed as noted above.

From the Oakland-Berkeley area, drive east on I-880. Take the 1-880 south exit at Calaveras Road/Highway 84 just south of the Sunol exit. Proceed as noted above.

Visitors are responsible for knowing and complying with park rules, available online at www.ebparks.org.

DOGS must be leashed 20 feet from any trail or park
entrance, in parking lots, picnic areas, developed areas such as lawns and play fields, and on some trails. They must be under voice control and within sight at all times. Waste
must be placed in garbage cans or removed from the park.

Smoking is prohibited, except in overnight campsites.

Drones are prohibited.

State law requires all bicycles under age 18 wear
an approved helmet while riding on trails and roadways.

All bicyclists and equestrians are strongly encouraged
to wear helmets at all times.

The backpack area is
open during the Calaveras Dam replacement project.

Sunol-Ohlone Regional Wilderness
To Reach Sunol Regional Wilderness:
From Fremont, drive north on I-680 and exit at Calaveras Road (near the town of Sunol.) Turn right at the exit and proceed about four miles to a left turn onto Geary Road, which leads directly into the park. If you find yourself driving right on a narrow winding road you’ve missed the Geary Road entrance. To reach the Old Green Barn take the first left past the park entrance.

From the Walnut Creek-Danville area, drive south on I-680, exit at Calaveras Road/Highway 84 just south of the Sunol exit. Proceed as noted above.

Visitors are responsible for knowing and complying with park rules, available online at www.ebparks.org.

DOGS must be leashed 20 feet from any trail or park
entrance, in parking lots, picnic areas, developed areas such as lawns and play fields, and on some trails. They must be under voice control and within sight at all times. Waste
must be placed in garbage cans or removed from the park.

Smoking is prohibited, except in overnight campsites.

Drones are prohibited.

State law requires all bicycles under age 18 wear
an approved helmet while riding on trails and roadways.

All bicyclists and equestrians are strongly encouraged
to wear helmets at all times.

The backpack area is
open during the Calaveras Dam replacement project.