

Winter 2012

Black Diamond Mines

Docent Training

Join our dedicated team! Docents are specially trained volunteers who assist staff naturalists with special events, hikes, and school programs. You'll learn local history, ecology, and interpretive skills while meeting like-minded people and working with a diverse public.

Three five-hour training sessions required plus underground mine safety training. 18+yrs.

Where: Black Diamond Mines Regional Preserve
5175 Somersville Road, Antioch, CA 94509

When: Wednesdays, February 1, 8, and 15, 2012
9am-2pm plus mine safety training

Cost: $35

Contact: Eddie Willis, Naturalist/Docent Coordinator
510-544-2768 or ewillis@ebparks.org

Application and interview required

East Bay
Regional Park District
www.ebparks.org

