Regional Open Space, Wildlife, Shoreline and Parks

WW lands adjacent to Coyote Hills to complete park boundaries preserve, protect, and interpret rare species including important open space; enhance wetland and riparian habitat underground trail and Mining Museum and to preserve shoreline. Establish the first section of the Great Delta Trail species. Provide water access to the Pittsburg/Bay Point and complete this critical wildlife corridor for Alameda

Francisco Bay, and extend the Bay Trail around Alameda Point the National Park Service to provide services in the area.

tiger salamanders and red-legged frogs and restore Mt. Diablo

Weapons Station. Protect open space and wildlife habitat for park on the inland portion of the former Concord Naval

Ranch access, develop staging area and trail connections

hillside open space surrounding and near the park in partnership sensitive wildlife habitats and create new access for all users.

Expand outdoor recreation opportunities, preserve shoreline

and other facilities to support the new Bay Water Trail,

all communities from Sunol to the Carquinez Strait.

Acquire and develop trail links to close the remaining gaps

★

Carquinez Strait

★

8

– $11.3 million to acquire open

– $8.1 million to acquire remaining

Byron Vernal Pools

Big Break Shoreline

– $1.6 million to expand and restore

rare species between Los Vaqueros

open space and habitat in central Contra Costa County

Complete multi-use Ridge Trail connections.

Ridge; complete the renovation of the historic Meyers

scenic ridgelands in the Union City Hills along Walpert

public access, scenic resources, and trails for all users.

golden eagles, prairie falcons and other species. Provide

and seasonal wetland habitat for tiger salamanders,

undeveloped expanse of the Tassajara Hills north of the Island and the San Joaquin River.

Acquire appropriate surplus federal property

the Crab Cove interpretive center, currently located of Crockett, Hercules, and Rodeo. Build new public access,

Delta Trail, improving urban access to fishing and boating

Work with State and local agencies to develop the Great

for all users, connecting the communities of Bay Point,

National Park Service to provide services in the area.

tiger salamanders and red-legged frogs and restore Mt. Diablo

Weapons Station. Protect open space and wildlife habitat for

park on the inland portion of the former Concord Naval

Ranch access, develop staging area and trail connections

hillside open space surrounding and near the park in partnership

sensitive wildlife habitats and create new access for all users.

Expand outdoor recreation opportunities, preserve shoreline

and other facilities to support the new Bay Water Trail,

all communities from Sunol to the Carquinez Strait.

Acquire and develop trail links to close the remaining gaps

★

Carquinez Strait

★

8

– $11.3 million to acquire open

– $8.1 million to acquire remaining

Byron Vernal Pools

Big Break Shoreline

– $1.6 million to expand and restore

rare species between Los Vaqueros

open space and habitat in central Contra Costa County

Complete multi-use Ridge Trail connections.

Ridge; complete the renovation of the historic Meyers

scenic ridgelands in the Union City Hills along Walpert

public access, scenic resources, and trails for all users.

golden eagles, prairie falcons and other species. Provide

and seasonal wetland habitat for tiger salamanders,

undeveloped expanse of the Tassajara Hills north of the Island and the San Joaquin River.

Acquire appropriate surplus federal property

the Crab Cove interpretive center, currently located

of Crockett, Hercules, and Rodeo. Build new public access,

Delta Trail, improving urban access to fishing and boating

Work with State and local agencies to develop the Great

for all users, connecting the communities of Bay Point,

National Park Service to provide services in the area.

tiger salamanders and red-legged frogs and restore Mt. Diablo

Weapons Station. Protect open space and wildlife habitat for

park on the inland portion of the former Concord Naval

Ranch access, develop staging area and trail connections

hillside open space surrounding and near the park in partnership

sensitive wildlife habitats and create new access for all users.

Expand outdoor recreation opportunities, preserve shoreline

and other facilities to support the new Bay Water Trail,

all communities from Sunol to the Carquinez Strait.

Acquire and develop trail links to close the remaining gaps

★

Carquinez Strait

★

8

– $11.3 million to acquire open

– $8.1 million to acquire remaining

Byron Vernal Pools

Big Break Shoreline

– $1.6 million to expand and restore

rare species between Los Vaqueros

open space and habitat in central Contra Costa County

Complete multi-use Ridge Trail connections.

Ridge; complete the renovation of the historic Meyers

scenic ridgelands in the Union City Hills along Walpert

public access, scenic resources, and trails for all users.

golden eagles, prairie falcons and other species. Provide

and seasonal wetland habitat for tiger salamanders,

undeveloped expanse of the Tassajara Hills north of the Island and the San Joaquin River.

Acquire appropriate surplus federal property

the Crab Cove interpretive center, currently located

of Crockett, Hercules, and Rodeo. Build new public access,

Delta Trail, improving urban access to fishing and boating

Work with State and local agencies to develop the Great

for all users, connecting the communities of Bay Point,

National Park Service to provide services in the area.