Lake Chabot was named for Anthony Chabot, former mayor of Oakland and a leader in the construction of Lake Chabot in 1874. The lake was part of a larger water system in San Francisco and Oakland.

Fees

Lake Chabot has about 9 miles of hiking trails, a 18-hole public golf course, a well-stocked bait and tackle shop and a restaurant that opens Thursday through Sunday. The Marina Cafe, and picnicking at reservable and first-come, first-served picnic areas. Swimming is not permitted.

- Parking: $5/vehicle, $4/trailer, $5 for a boat launch permit.
- Boat launching: $4/boat.
- Fees are subject to change. Check ebparks.org for the most up-to-date information.

Did you know?

- Anthony Chabot Regional Park was Lake Chabot, EB-Parks, and the City of Oakland in the 1900s by the property for the City of Oakland in the 1900s by the
- Anthony Chabot Park at Estudillo Avenue and Sylvan Circle and the Marina are reservable for organized groups.

History

Today’s Anthony Chabot and Lake Chabot Regional Parks are located within the original land of the Joaquin and Bay Area fishing destination. All California Fish and Wildlife regulations apply. A current California Fishing License with stamp and EBRPD fishing permit are required for all anglers aged 16 and over. Fishing licenses and EBRPD permits may be purchased at the Marina Cafe. Senior Fishing Access Permits, valid for use on four days of the week, are available by reservation. Daily Anglers Access Permits, valid for any number of days in a season at the lake, are available by reservation. Organized groups and campsites park free at the Lake Chabot Marina. No live fish may be used as bait. All other legal bait is allowed. All anglers are encouraged to release all fish unharmed and return to the water. If you are interested in learning more about fishing rules and regulations, check the California Department of Fish and Wildlife website. For more information, contact: (510) 247-2526.

DAILY BAG LIMITS

- Lake Chabot is black bass (0-10 inch minimum)-0.
- Creel limit is 12 fish per day (0-10 inch minimum).
- The marsh offers rainbow trout, near brood-trout, the only native trout species in California. Sensing for the first time opened season. Sensing is not permitted. Non-residents include new boats, canoes, paddle boards, kayaks, and boats with electric trolling motors. Canoes are open to all non-motorized boaters including canoes, kayaks and small sailboats. The marsh offers rainbow trout, near brood-trout, the only native trout species in California.

BICYCLE TRAILS

Bicycles are allowed on most trails with the exception of the Lake Chabot bicycle loop (see map) is 12.42 miles via Lake Chabot Road and 14.46 miles via Buena Vista Trail. All bike trails are open to mountain bikes only. All other wheeled vehicles are not allowed on bike trails.

For more information, contact: (510) 247-2526. OR 510-881-1121

ANTHONY CHABOT REGIONAL PARK

TO REACH LAKE CHABOT MARINA:

- From I-580 eastbound in Castro Valley take the Milpitas Blvd. exit. Head west on Milpitas Blvd. and turn left at Lake Chabot Road. Take the Lake Chabot Road exit. The Marina entrance will be on the left.
- From I-580 westbound in Castro Valley take the Milpitas Blvd. exit. Head west on Milpitas Blvd. and turn left onto Lake Chabot Road at the stoplight. The Marina entrance will be on the right.
- From I-580 eastbound on the Redwood Road exit. Head west on Redwood Road and take the Lake Chabot Road exit. The Marina entrance will be on the left.
- From I-580 westbound on the Lake Chabot Road exit. Take the Lake Chabot Road exit. The Marina entrance will be on the right.

EAST BAY Forbes Park:

- Take the Lake Chabot exit and take a slight left. The Marina is about two miles ahead on the right.
- From I-580 eastbound take the Lake Chabot Road exit. Take the Lake Chabot exit and take a slight left. The Marina is about two miles ahead on the right.

Public Transit:

- Lake Chabot is accessible by public transit. The Marina is accessible by public transit. From BART take the Milpitas Blvd. exit. Head west on Milpitas Blvd. and turn left at Lake Chabot Road. Take the Lake Chabot Road exit. The Marina entrance will be on the left.

Reservations:
