

EASY BAY REGIONAL PARK DISTRICT

ADMINISTRATIVE AIDE

GENERAL FUNCTION

Under general supervision, the Administrative Aide for Construction is responsible for processing and monitoring contractual documents related to construction of capital projects. The Administrative Aide for Parks Express is responsible for increasing access to the regional parks for people with "special needs". This is a clerical bridge classification, which is distinguished from the professional classification of Administrative Analyst.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

The essential functions of this position include, but are not limited to: the Administrative Aide for Construction is responsible for serving as primary administrative assistant to the Construction Manager in all construction projects; preparing and processing all required contract documentation (correspondence, contracts, payment requests, change orders, proposed change orders, etc.); acting as primary administrative support for Inspection and Survey sections. The Administrative Aide for Parks Express is responsible for planning and implementing summer Parks Express trips, based upon available funds, facilities, transportation, and customer needs; organizing committees of staff and outside partners to implement multiple annual special events; conducting outreach; maintaining a database of transportation reservations.

OTHER FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES

Other tasks related to this position will include: (for the Administrative Aide for Construction) acting as liaison between contractors, construction and design staff; organizing and maintaining project files for current and completed construction projects; evaluating contract documents and insurance certificates for compliance; identifying problems and recommending solutions; preparing Construction Project Status chart for Capital Project meetings; (for the Administrative Aide for Parks Express) researching information on accessible transportation and facilities; contracting with transportation providers; negotiating fees; resolving customer service problems; reviewing vendor invoices and trip sheets for accuracy; recruiting and supervising volunteers for special events; producing monthly reports; monitoring program revenues and expenses; may have responsibility for supervising office support staff; performing related duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Equivalent to completion of a two year degree in business or related field, not less than 60 semester units or 90 quarter units of college level courses,

AND

Experience: Two years related administrative experience.

OR

Two years experience equivalent to the District's Senior Office Specialist, Secretary, or Account Clerk classifications.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS & ABILITIES

Knowledge of database management, contractual language, as well as, construction terminology is desirable. Ability to be flexible and make timely and sound decisions; work independently without close supervision. Ability to coordinate multiple tasks and priorities. Ability to lift small and large boxes and files; sit, kneel, and bend. Ability to establish and maintain positive and cooperative working relationships with those contacted in the course of work at all levels, including a culturally diverse general public, with a focus on quality service to internal and external customers. Strong organizational, verbal and written communication skills; for Parks Express: skill in working with diverse populations, including the disabled community; experience planning, developing, promoting and marketing programs; soliciting volunteer and donor support. Knowledge of office practices and procedures, and standard office equipment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Certain positions will require a valid California driver's license as a condition of initial and continued employment in this classification.

REPORTS TO: A manager of the East Bay Regional Park District.