The Great California Delta Trail will be an interconnected regional network of land and water trails within the Delta region: Contra Costa, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano & Yolo counties.

This segment, between EBRPRD's Bay Point Wetlands and Pittsburg's Marina Park, will be one of the first links in this network, providing critical access to the Delta shoreline with a safe, continuous and accessible route for pedestrians and bicyclists.

Your involvement is encouraged. All information will be posted on the EBRPD Website following the workshop at: www.ebparks.org

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

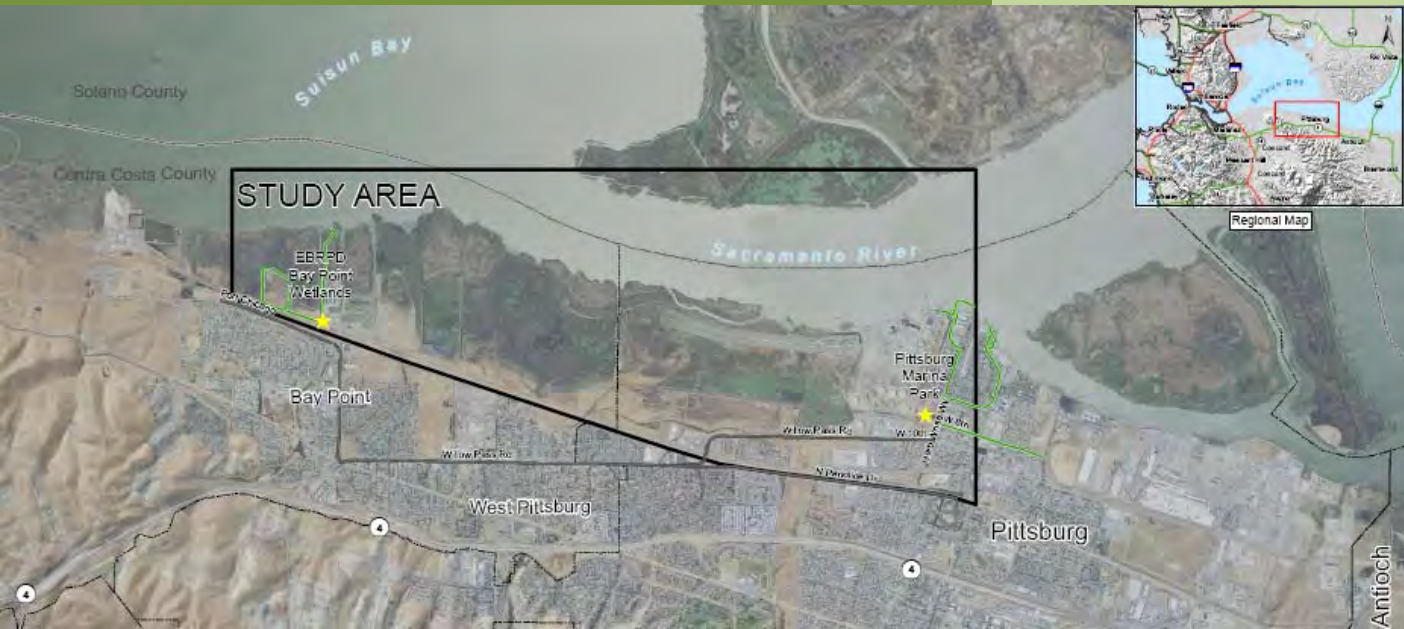

This portion of the Great California Delta Trail, between EBRPD's Bay Point Wetlands Regional Shoreline and Marina Park, covers a distance of approximately 5 miles. The project is a multiuse trail that will provide non-motorized access between these points, as well as opportunities for spur trails to the Sacramento River Delta shoreline, trail loops, and connections to existing bicycle facilities. The trail is planned as a minimum 10-foot-wide trail that meets Caltrans Class I standards. Portions of the trail would pass through lands owned by PG&E, Contra Costa Water District, and Mirant's power plant. Right of Way will need to be obtained from all of these to enable completion of the trail system.

The Great California Delta Trail was created in 2006 by SB 1556 (Torlakson) to acknowledge and support the unique natural resources of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, the growing demands for public access to these resources, and the increasing recognition of the importance of outdoor recreation in addressing childhood obesity. Ultimately the Delta Trail will consist of a trail network through the five counties that contain the Delta region: Contra Costa, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano, and Yolo counties. This segment will be one of the first links in this network, providing critical access to the Delta shoreline, and serving a diverse and underserved population in eastern Contra Costa County.
