10:45am – 11:15am Dance Lesson I

11:30am-1:00pm Andrew Carriere & The Cajun/Zydeco Allstars are led by the 74 year old accordion player, who loved listening to zydeco while growing up, but didn't become a serious musician himself until after he had landed in California in the early 1970s and began working as a welder on a nuclear submarine. Eventually he began singing and playing triangle with the California Cajun Orchestra, and then moved on to the accordion. Andrew Carriere & The Cajun/Zydeco Allstars feature zydeco, traditional French music as well as country and rock 'n' roll.

1:15pm – 2:45pm Corey Ledet & His Zydeco Band was founded in 2003 by Corey Ledet, who spent his summers with family in the small town of Parks, Louisiana, and was inspired to move to Louisiana after he graduated. Ledet is able to infuse old and new styles of Zydeco from all musicians that have influenced him, making his own unique sound. The band has toured overseas to France, Germany and Russia. Corey Ledet was a Grammy nominee for his sixth record "Nothin' But The Best."

2:45pm – 3:00pm Dance Lesson II

3:00pm – 4:30pm Andre Thierry has been a crowd favorite with his blend of traditional Zydeco music, hip-hop, blues, jazz and rock. While Andre Thierry was born in Richmond, California, his family roots were from Louisiana. His grandfather, Houston Pitre, encouraged Thierry to take up the accordion after a visit from the "King of Zydeco," legend Clifton Chenier. By age 12, Thierry had formed the Zydeco Magic and was performing along with bands visiting from Louisiana. While playing Washington, D.C. in 2003, the Washington Post called Andre a "master" at "pumping out fast, funky rhythms on an instrument not usually associated with earthy syncopation." Andre Thierry and Zydeco Magic received the West Coast Blues Hall of Fame award for "Best Zydeco Group" in 2008. Now in his 30's, Andre is an exceptional multi-dimensional musician who has a finely-honed ability to merge traditional Zydeco music with hip-hop, blues, jazz and rock.

4:30pm – 4:50pm Dance Lesson III

5:00pm – 6:30pm Pine Leaf Boys hailing from southwest Louisiana, have made a name for presenting their own inimitable brand of Cajun music with youthful exuberance. Nominated for a Grammy four times, the Pine Leaf Boys were described in the New York Times as, "... the link that connects the young and the old generations," and, "the best new, energetic, and fun Cajun band in a very long time." The Pine Leaf Boys have been invited on three occasions by the U.S. State Department to tour the world and present true music to Saudi Arabia, UAE, Jerusalem, Latvia, Denmark, Slovenia, Uzbek, Tajik, and Kyrgyz. The variety and energy they release evolves through their shows, bringing multi-faceted angles to Cajun, Creole, and Zydeco.
