

WHAT'S BREWING AT BLACK DIAMOND SAT., OCTOBER 20, 2018

Photo from Phoebe Hearst Museum at UC Berkeley

Journey back to 1876 —when Somersville was a bustling coal mining town — to celebrate in vintage style with crafts and games for kids of all ages, guided walks between historic pub locations, free beer courtesy of Drake's Brewing Co., food for sale, horseshoes, bocce ball, sack races, and more.

- ◆ Must be age 21+, with valid photo ID, to consume alcohol. Limit of two 7oz servings of beer per eligible participant. Free lemonade for all.
- ◆ Most activities take place in a flat, open, unpaved area.
- ◆ Guided walks on paved and unpaved trails in hilly terrain.
- ◆ FREE EVENT.

This event is co-hosted by Regional Parks Foundation and East Bay Regional Park District at Black Diamond Mines Regional Preserve, 5175 Somersville Road, Antioch, CA 94509. For more info call (510) 544-2750 or email bdvisit@ebparks.org.