Trails Challenge is a free program made possible through a partnership between the East Bay Regional Park District, the Regional Parks Foundation, and Kaiser Permanente.
Welcome to Trails Challenge 2021!

The Park District’s Trails Challenge is a popular program that connects people to nature through hiking and biking. This free program, entering its 28th year, offers 20 diverse trails each year ranging from easy to challenging. The Trails Challenge is part of the global Healthy Parks Healthy People (HPHP) movement that underscores the connection between a healthy green environment and community health.

While we continue to navigate the challenges of COVID-19, one thing has become very clear, PARKS ARE ESSENTIAL. They play a vital role in sustaining our physical, mental, and spiritual health. We appreciate your support in loving and protecting this beautiful system of parklands and shorelines in Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

In addition to the Trails Challenge, we hope you’ll take time out to explore our newest park in Oakland — Judge John Sutter Regional Shoreline at the eastern touchdown of the Bay Bridge. Visit the restored tidal marshlands at Bay Point Regional Shoreline with views of Suisun Bay. Or take a walk or bike ride on the new bridge and new trail segment of the San Francisco Bay Trail next to the restored Albany Neck and Beach.

We thank Kaiser Permanente and the Regional Parks Foundation for sponsoring Trails Challenge and supporting our mission to “forever provide the opportunity for a growing and diverse community to experience nature nearby.”

To protect yourself and other park visitors, please wear your face mask and observe the 6-foot social distance. Enjoy the trails, invigorate your health, and create fond memories in nature!

AllTrails – Go to ebparks.org/TC for details.

Note that you can use any trail route within the East Bay Regional Parks to complete the Challenge, not just those listed in this Guidebook. To complete the Challenge, walk at least five trails or 26.2 miles (a marathon distance).

Visit Trails Challenge at ebparks.org/TC for more information.

1) Determine Your Level of Hiking/Biking Comfort
Use these guidelines to determine distance and level of intensity suitable for you:

EASY
- Relatively flat with good trail conditions (paved or packed gravel).
- 1 to 3 miles; 1-2 hours to complete.
- Generally suitable for strollers.

MODERATE
- Significant elevation gain (500-1,000 feet) with good-to-rugged conditions.
- 3-6 miles; 2-4 hours to complete.
- Requires good physical condition.

CHALLENGING
- Significant elevation gain (1,000+ feet) with good-to-rugged trail conditions.
- 6-20+ miles; 4-8 hours to complete.
- Requires good physical condition.

2) Plan Your Outing
To choose a trail, refer to At-A-Glance trail charts (pages 10-15) indicating accessibility, mileage, and intensity level.

Visit Trails Challenge at ebparks.org/TC for more information.

Plan to go with a buddy; otherwise, inform someone of your route and expected time of return. If hiking with kids or hiking with dogs, refer to ebparks.org/TC for helpful tips.

Check the weather ahead of time. See website for any trail closures before setting out.

List of Things to Bring
- Plenty of water for you and your dog
- Sturdy shoes and appropriate clothing
- Sunscreen, sunglasses, and hat
- Trail map and AllTrails app

See website for full list

3) Exploring the Trail
Stay on designated trails. Do not make switchbacks or take shortcuts!
- Hikers yield to horses; cyclists and skaters yield to hikers and horses.
- Keep dog on leash unless specifically posted that they can be off leash.
- Pack it in, pack it out — including dog waste bags. Do not litter!

See website for more trail rules and safety guidelines

4) Log Your Outings
After each hike, record the name of trail and distance in Trail Log on page 56 (or on a separate piece of paper). After completing five trails, or 26.2 miles (a marathon distance), submit your log to reservations@ebparks.org, or mail it to:

East Bay Regional Park District
c/o Reservations Department
2950 Peralta Oaks Court
Oakland, CA 94605

Turn in your log by 12/1/2021 to receive a 2021 pin. The pin will be mailed 7-to-10 business days after your log is received (while supplies last).
Safety on the Trails
While on the trails, remember that you are a guest of the many diverse plants and animals that call the Regional Parks their home. Observe the golden rule: Leave plants and animals alone and they will leave you alone.

Below are some natural features found in the parklands. Review them on ebparks.org/TC and learn how to protect yourself and be a good steward of the natural environment. If you have an emergency, call 911 for assistance.

Ticks and Lyme Disease
Lyme disease is an infectious disease transmitted by the bite of a tick. It may be treated and cured with early diagnosis, but if not properly treated it may persist in the body for years. If bitten by a tick, pull it gently from the skin with a tissue or tweezers (not with bare hands). Wash hands and tick bite with soap and water; apply antiseptic to bite.

Snakes
Most snakes found in California are harmless, but the Northern Pacific rattlesnake has a venomous bite if provoked. The color and pattern of both rattlesnakes and gopher snakes create excellent camouflage with soil, making it easy to mistake a rattlesnake for a harmless gopher snake. Therefore, use caution around ANY snake you see in the wild, and do not approach or attempt to handle it.

Grazing Animals
Cattle weigh 1,000 pounds or more. While generally not aggressive, cattle can respond in a dangerous manner if aggravated.
- Keep your distance and walk around groups of cattle, not through them
- Don’t get between a calf and its mother; they are protective of their young
- Always keep your dog on a leash around cattle

Wild Animals
Coyote, bobcats, deer, elk, wild pigs, and mountain lions are occasionally spotted in the parks. Their normal reaction is to run away. Some have become used to our presence and will continue their activities while being watched. These animals may become dangerous should they be surprised or confronted, or if they begin to associate humans with food.
- Keep your distance
- DO NOT feed, approach, or pet wild animals
- Keep pets and small children near you in wilderness areas

Health Tips
Get Healthy Today!
Kaiser Permanente has sponsored the Trails Challenge since 2005, making it free for all participants. Kaiser’s Every Body Walk! Campaign, launched in 2007, goes hand in hand with Trails Challenge. It’s about creating communities of families, friends, neighbors, and outdoor enthusiasts who walk every day for health and happiness. Some benefits gained from just 30 minutes of exercise a day include:

- More energy
- Better sleep
- Lower blood pressure
- Reduction of stress and anxiety
- Improved concentration and memory
- Stronger bones, muscles, and joints
- Achieving and maintaining a healthy weight
- Improved balance, flexibility, and posture
- Reduced risk of breast and colon cancer, heart disease, and diabetes

Watch the Heat!
When exercising in temperatures above 80°F (27°C), be sure to find shade, take regular breaks, and drink plenty of water to avoid heat exhaustion. Symptoms include nausea, dizziness, and cramps.

Call 911 immediately if:
- You have stopped sweating
- You have a rapid increase in heart rate
- Have a high body temperature
- Mental confusion
- Loss of energy

Resources
- Visit Kaiser Permanente at kp.org for health and wellness programs and classes, videos, and podcasts.
- Visit everybodywalk.org for news and resources on walking, walking groups, stories about how walking has changed lives.

Due to COVID-19: Water fountains and some restrooms may be closed.

Trails: Woolridge Staging Area, Goldenrod/Jalquin/Goldenrod

Hours/Curfew: 5 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Fees: None

Website: ebparks.org/parks/anthony_chabot

Park Features: Only 20 minutes from downtown Oakland, the 3,304-acre park offers a beautiful, year-round public campground, and 70 miles of hiking, riding, and bicycling trails through grasslands, chaparral, and shady eucalyptus groves, or along the shores of Lake Chabot. The East Bay Skyline National Trail runs the length of the park. Anthony Chabot is connected to Cull Canyon Regional Recreation Area by a six-mile section of the Chabot-to-Garin Regional Trail. There’s also boating, fishing, and picnicning. Swimming and water contact is not permitted since the lake serves as a backup water supply for the East Bay.

Trail Highlights: This scenic loop showcases much of what Anthony Chabot has to offer. As you ascend onto the high ground of the Jalquin Trail, enjoy the spectacular views to the East overlooking Grass Valley Creek.

Trail Directions: Start at the Woolridge Staging Area and head right through the pipe gate. Follow the fire road 100 feet until you see the post marking the Goldenrod Trail on the left. Take the upper Goldenrod Trail left until it meets Jalquin Trail. Follow Jalquin Trail until it reconnects with Goldenrod. Take Goldenrod Trail back to the staging area.

Driving Directions: To reach Clyde Woolridge Staging Area, take Hwy 24 west to Oakland. Take Hwy 13 South to Hayward. Merge onto Hwy 580 east. Take the Keller Ave. exit towards Mountain Blvd. Turn left on Keller Ave., then right on Skyline Blvd. The staging area is on the left near the intersection of Skyline Blvd and Grass Valley Road.
Health Tip

A Stanford study found that people who walked for 90 minutes in a natural environment, compared with those who walked in a high-traffic urban setting, reported lower levels of ruminating over negative experiences, and showed decreased activity in a region of the brain associated with depression.

Brushy Peak Regional Preserve

Location: Livermore
GPS: 37.74713,-121.70847
Phone: (888-327-2757), option 3, extension 4512
Miles: 2.4-Mile Round Trip
Elevation Gain: 305 ft.
Trails: Brushy Peak Loop
Hours/Curfew: 8 a.m. to Sunset; varies seasonally
Fees: None
Website: ebparks.org/parks/brushy_peak

Park Features: Brushy Peak and the surrounding area has been recognized as sacred by generations of native Californians. It was once home to the Ssaoam people, a tribelet of the Ohlone peoples who lived and traded in the lands surrounding the peak. The park’s open grasslands support a diversity of wildlife, especially ground squirrels and cottontails that are prey for a variety of hawks and golden eagles. South-facing slopes of the peak host a coastal sage community of plants.

Trail Highlights: This walk offers great views of the surrounding grasslands and a perfect perch for birdwatching. Red-tailed hawks and golden eagles are common here, as are ground squirrels, owls, reptiles, badgers, and the San Joaquin kit fox. The trailside structural remnants are what’s left of farm buildings built by Joseph Laughlin in 1920s and 1930s.

Trail Directions: From the staging area walk to the Brushy Peak Loop Trailhead at the left of the residence. Walk until it takes a sharp left-hand bend and goes uphill. This is your turn-around point.

Driving Directions: From I-580 in Livermore, exit north at Vasco Road and immediately turn right onto Northfront Road. After about .8 miles turn left onto Laughlin Road and proceed approximately two miles to the staging area at the end of Laughlin Road.

Website: ebparks.org/parks/hayward

Park Features: Hayward Regional Shoreline contains over a thousand acres of marshlands and seasonal wetlands. The park’s levees, originally built for salt evaporation ponds, now provide visitors with long, flat paths along the bay that are perfect for biking, hiking, or jogging. You can fish from the levee but must have a license. Although the park is unshaded, the cool bay air is refreshing and makes this park a wonderful spot at almost any time of year.

Trail Highlights: With five ponds and 15 islands, it is a great place for bird watching and spotting native plants and wildflowers along the trails. Although this hike is in full sun, you can enjoy the fresh bay breezes, which make it well worth the hike! Please note: Dogs are not allowed past Hayward Landing.

Trail Directions: This trail does not have any markers until you almost complete the loop, so be sure to bring a park map to guide you. From the parking lot just past the park office, walk through the gate to start on the trail. You will veer to the left at the fork and walk 83 miles to the Cogswell Marsh Loop, which starts after crossing the first footbridge. After you cross the first footbridge, proceed to the right to start by the water and work your way around. You can go either direction to complete the 1.2-mile loop. After completing the loop, walk back over the footbridge and follow the same path back to your starting point. The San Francisco Bay Trail intersects with the Cogswell Marsh Loop; be sure not to branch off from the trail. Stay on the loop, and follow it back to the first footbridge you crossed.

Driving Directions: Take I-880 (Nimitz Freeway) north from Fremont or south from Oakland to Hayward. Exit the freeway at West Winton Avenue and follow West Winton westwards toward the Bay to the staging area until you reach the park.

Decades of restoration projects at MLK Jr. Regional Shoreline have brought this precious marshland’s ecosystem back to life. The restoration of native plants has attracted the return of many bird species, including the endangered Ridgway’s rail and the burrowing owl. The marshlands also attract thousands of migrating birds annually for resting and feeding. Pack a lunch and relax at one of the shoreline’s many grassy areas or picnic areas. Be sure to bring sunblock or wear protective clothing because this park has few shaded areas.

Trail Highlights:
All the trails in this shoreline park are paved and suitable for people of any fitness levels. Bikes, strollers, wheelchairs, and skaters are welcome on the Bay Trail. As with all EBRPD lands, dogs are not allowed in the marsh areas. They must be on a leash throughout this park (6-foot maximum). Restrooms and water are located at the Tidewater Boating Center as well as the Garretson Point Staging Area turn around point.

Park Features: Huckleberry Botanic Regional Preserve is an ecological jewel. The native plant community here is found nowhere else in the East Bay. It represents a relic plant association found only in certain areas along California’s coast.

Sibley Regional Park’s Round Top (elevation 1763 ft. above sea level) is the preserve’s most prominent feature. It dates to about 10 million years ago and is the source of all the volcanic rock in the park. The display panels in the pavilion provide a geological history of the park. The 31-mile East Bay Skyline National Recreation Trail, part of the Bay Area Ridge Trail system, traverses the preserve along the ridgeline between Wildcat Canyon and Anthony Chabot Parks.

Trail Highlights: Both parks are unique and this route gives you a taste of both worlds. The 600 foot elevation gain in the middle of the route is sure to get your heart pumping; good hiking shoes and trekking poles are recommended and be sure to bring plenty of water. If you want to avoid the climb, these parks’ main staging areas are only a few minutes from each other along Skyline Boulevard. Watch out for poison oak.

Trail Directions: This route starts at Huckleberry Staging Area, where there is a chemical toilet but no drinking fountain, so plan accordingly. Huckleberry Path is a single-track trail with narrow and steep sections so be careful. Turn left at your first intersection, heading down the steps. After .32 miles, connect with the Bay Area Ridge/Skyline National Recreation Trail to the left and down. Continue downhill and cross a stream. Go uphill for .81 miles and enjoy the canopy of trees as you trek up the hillside. As you approach Round Top, turn right onto the Round Top Loop Trail, the first intersection near the top. If you miss it, it is okay as both directions circle back to the Bay Area Ridge Trail. Head eastbound on Round Top Loop Trail, continue .44 miles until you reach a cattle gate. Pick up the Round Top Loop Trail circling the peak. At the next trail junction, turn left to stay on the trail. After another .41 miles along the loop trail you will connect back to the Bay Area Ridge/Skyline National Recreation Trail; keep an eye for the trail, it is easy to miss. The paved trail will lead you back. Veer left for .18 miles and follow it back to where you started the Round Top Loop Trail, making your descent back to Huckleberry. Retrace your steps back up Huckleberry Path and to your starting point.

Driving Directions: From Highway 24 in Oakland, take the Fish Ranch Road exit immediately east of the Caldecott Tunnel. Continue .8 miles to Grizzly Peak Blvd. Turn left and go 2.4 miles on Grizzly Peak to Skyline Boulevard. Turn left and drive approximately one-half mile to the Huckleberry Staging Area on the left, past Sibley Volcanic Regional Preserve.

Park Features: Once home to Bay Miwok-speaking people, ranchers, and coal miners, Black Diamond Mines Regional Preserve is an ideal location for hiking, picnicking, and nature study. Five mining towns once occupied the area from the 1860s until the early 1900s, the most famous being Nortonville and Somersville. Almost four million tons of coal were removed before coal mining stopped and sand mining began by the Hazel-Atlas glass company.

Trail Highlights: The Railroad Bed Trail once contained train tracks that aided in hauling large amounts of coal, northward, to the neighboring river cities. Miners and their families also traveled these hills by foot or horse, to traverse the area that is now a preserve. Go against the grain and feel the effects of gravity that once helped coal-hauling trains travel downward.

Trail Directions: Park at first parking lot near the Sidney Flat Visitor Center. Head south to begin the Railroad Bed Trail and follow for 1 mile. Veer left continuing on the Railroad Bed Trail, passing the second parking lot. Turn left to follow the Stewartville Trail, .6 miles. When reaching the top of Stewartville Trail, pass the cattle gate, turning left onto the Ridge Trail for .5 miles. Follow left at the next trail mark onto the Acorn Trail. After .45 miles you will reach a cattle gate, entering the Old Homestead Loop Trail. Follow for .81 miles, veer left onto the Lark Trail and continue west on the trail. Turn right onto the Riverview Trail and follow for .33 miles. Riverview Trail turns into Riverview Loop, following the trail to the right. The optional Arata Overlook along Riverview Loop Trail will add .44 miles to your hike and is a nice resting spot to view nearby areas. Continue Riverview Loop for 1.3 miles heading south, returning down to Sidney Flat parking lot.

Driving Directions: From Concord/Walnut Creek: Take I-680 north to Hwy 242 and merge onto Hwy 4 east towards Stockton/Antioch; take Somersville Rd. exit and follow Somersville Rd. four miles south into the park and continue to the parking lot.

Trails Challenge 2021 is a program of East Bay Regional Park District in partnership with...

Park Features: Las Trampas Regional Wilderness offers an expanded trail system that allows hikers to enjoy its remote and rugged areas, with a terrain that gives a feeling of privacy and an escape from modern-day tasks. Be sure to carry plenty of water; the park's water supply is inconsistent and may be unavailable at any time.

Trail Highlights: With a variety of shaded forest, open grassland, rock formations, and a wind cave, this route contains very steep grades throughout and can be very muddy in the rainy season. Be sure to bring the essentials to beat the heat in summer. Equestrians are not permitted on the Sycamore Trail and should not go on Devil's Hole Trail; if you are on horseback try a detour on Cuesta or Rocky Ridge View Trails back to the staging area when you reach this point of the route.

Trail Directions: From the staging area on Bollinger Canyon Rd., begin the Elderberry Trail by going through the nearby gate; follow Elderberry Trail and turn right, going uphill at Corral Camp for a steep but pleasant climb through woodland to the ridge. Make a sharp right onto Rocky Ridge View Trail and climb about .38 mile more to an elevation of 1,893 feet. Pay attention to rock formations on the ridge, which contain remnants of prehistoric sea life, and look for markers here as you hike along the Alameda and Contra Costa county line. Veer left onto Devil's Hole Trail and descend 700 feet; look for the wind cave to the left off the trail and enjoy wildflowers in the spring. After the descent but before the creek crossing, look for Sycamore Trail on your right, as the signpost is easy to miss. Make the beautiful-yet-strenuous climb on Sycamore, a rocky trail through chaparral and unique rock formations. Make a left on Rocky Ridge View Trail and continue for .75 miles, then make a sharp right and continue about .8 miles back to parking lot.

Driving Directions: From I-680 in San Ramon: Take Crow Canyon Rd. west to Bollinger Canyon Rd.; turn right and follow Bollinger Canyon Rd. into the park, about four miles.
