

72ND ANNIVERSARY AND NATIONAL PARK SERVICE CENTENNIAL

COMMEMORATING THE PAST—ENVISIONING THE FUTURE

PORT CHICAGO

NAVAL MAGAZINE NATIONAL MEMORIAL

JOIN US — JULY 17, 2016

Please join us on Sunday, July 17, 2016 to commemorate the 72nd anniversary of the Port Chicago explosion in Concord, CA and celebrate the centennial of the National Park Service. The ceremony will be held at the future site of the National Park Service / East Bay Regional Park District visitor center located on the former Concord Naval Weapons Station.

The Naval Weapons Station remains closed to the public, requiring all visitors to be shuttled to the event. Buses will pick up guests at the Pittsburg/Bay Point BART Station starting at 3:30 p.m. There will be a continuous loop of buses going to and from the BART Station throughout the duration of the event. Light refreshments will be available.
