

Sunol-Ohlone Regional Wilderness

Digital Learning Interpretive Program Descriptions

| Digital Learning Programs | Grade | Duration | MAX Participants |
|---|-------------------------------------|---------------|------------------|
| Geology: If Rocks Could Talk Unearth clues of the past as you learn about the layers of the earth, rock types, and cycles through song, dance, and the exploration of fossils. Topics will include rock types, cycles, and fossils. | 2 nd – 4 th | 30-45 minutes | 1 class |
| Not So Creepy Critters Meet our animal ambassadors – snake, toad, turtle, and spider. We will debunk myths and reveal their essential roles in our lives. Topics will include vertebrates, invertebrates, ecosystems, human perception and bias, conservation, and evolution. | 1 st – 5 th | 30-45 minutes | 1 class |
| California Native American Artifact Discovery Explore the local cultures of the Ohlone, Yokuts, and Miwok people as you weave their past and present traditions together. Discover the importance of culture, ancestors, as well as traditional and modern uses of natural resources through discussion and demonstration. *Program can be modified for middle and high school classes. | 3 rd – 5 th * | 45 minutes | 1 class |

Sunol-Ohlone Regional Wilderness

In-Person Interpretive Program Description

| In-Person Programs | Grade | Duration | MAX Participants |
|---|-----------------------------------|---|--|
| Geology: If Rocks Could Talk Make your own observations as you discover geologic processes with hands-on activities in Sunol! From patterns to processes that occur quickly or slowly, find out how our Earth is constantly changing. | 2 nd – 4 th | 2 – 2.5 hours | 1 class *available for 2 classes on Wednesdays only |
| Not So Creepy Critters Meet our animal ambassadors – snake, toad, turtle, and spider. We will debunk myths and reveal their essential roles in our lives. Topics will include vertebrates, invertebrates, ecosystems, human perception and bias, conservation, and evolution. | 1st – 5th | 1 – 1.5 hours | 1 class *available for 2 classes on Wednesdays only |
| Stream Study Investigate Alameda Creek, discovering the adaptations of critters in the water while catching, identifying, and releasing wildlife. Make observations along the creek as you learn to leave no trace. | 2 nd – 4 th | 2 hours *available March through May as creek conditions allow | 1 class *available for 2 classes on Wednesdays only |
| California Native American Artifact Discovery Explore the local cultures of the Ohlone, Yokuts, and Miwok people as you weave their past and present traditions together. Discover the importance of culture, ancestors, as well as traditional and modern uses of natural resources through discussion and demonstration. Program can be modified for middle and high school classes. | 3rd – 5th | 2 hours | 1 class *available for 2 classes on Wednesdays only |